REPUBLICANS MEET.

Second District Convention Held in Norfolk Yesterday.

Hons. Geo. E. Bowden and W. S. Holland Elected as Delegates and S. L. Burroughs and W. H. Thorogood as Alternates to National Convention—Col. J. J. Deyer for Presidential Elector—State Convention To-Day.

The Republican convention of the Second Congressional district met at 1:10 p. m. at the Real Estate Exchange yesterday and was called to order by Samuel L. Burroughs, district chairman. Secretary James Y. Mitchell read the call for the convention.

On motion of Mr. J. E. West, the call as given by the Republican district chairman and ratified by the Republican State Committee was adopted as the only call for a Republican district convention in this district, and this convention was adopted as the only regular district convention held in this district.

The roll call was then proceeded with and every city and county in the district was found to have a full representation.

E. G. Darden, of Newport News, was made temporary chairman by acclamation, and James Mitchell and James D. Long were made secretaries.

Captain Nichols moved that the roll as read be made the record of credentials and the roll of the convention, and this was accepted.

A HALL CALLED.

It was moved by Major R. G. Banks that the temporary organization be made permanent.

Colonel Deyer moved that a committee on credentials, a committee on organization and on resolutions be appointed. He was ruled out of order.

Mr. D. L. Groner moved a reconsideration of the vote on permanent record of roll, and the secretary asked time to make up the roll.

At this point, motion, counter-motion, amendment and substitute followed each other in such quick succession that the convention run itself to a standstill, and Secretary Mitchell was allowed to make up the roll, which to this time had been confined to the credentials. The convention rested.

On motion of Major Banks, all former action was rescinded. Major Banks then moved that a committee on credentials, on organization and on resolutions, each of five members, be appointed by the chair.

Captain Causey opposed this move and moved that only a committee on resolutions be appointed.

THE REASON WHY.

W. H. C. Brown, colored, explained the need of a committee on credentials by showing that the Williamsburg delegation was appointed by a convention called by the State Committee, and this convention needed to pass upon them and upon all delegates that the action be regular.

Colonel Deyer, of Southampton, endorsed these remarks, and the motion to appoint committees was carried unanimously, and the following were appointed:

COMMITTEES.

On Resolutions—R. G. Banks, W. S. Holland, A. E. Kelham, W. H. C. Brown, Henry Corson.

On Credentials—Fred Reed, Joseph Broughton, E. W. Lee, E. W. Jones, John Ivey.

On Organization—J. J. Deyer, A. Aronheim, W. W. Silvester, Sandy Parker, Wm. M. Reed.

COMMITTEE REPORTS.

The committees were out about ten minutes and returned with the following reports:

The committee on credentials reported favorably on the roll as presented. The report was accepted and the committee discharged.

The committee on organization reported favorably on making the temporary organization permanent and making W. W. Silvester sergeant-at-arms. This was adopted.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

The committee on resolutions reported a series of resolutions, endorsing the St. Louis platform, the present administration, and President McKinley for re-nomination; denouncing the election laws of Virginia and the civil service laws, and also the action of Dr. R. A. Wise in absenting himself from the House when this measure was before the body; endorsing Hon. George E. Bowden for re-election as National Committeeman, and Samuel L. Burroughs as chairman of the district.

The resolutions were heartily applauded and adopted.

It was moved by James I. Mitchell that a committee of five be appointed to select the names for delegates to the Philadelphia convention.

Mr. Aronheim moved to elect from the floor.

Colonel Deyer moved that a committee of one from each city and county select the delegates.

W. H. C. Brown moved as a substitute for the whole that the convention nominate by acclamation Hon. George E. Bowden and Hon. W. S. Holland as delegates to the National Convention. This was carried unanimously. Nominations for alternates were then made. S. L. Burroughs and W. H. Thorogood were nominated by W. H. C. Brown.

W. H. Thorogood, colored, was nominated by A. Aronheim. Sandy Parker was nominated by M. W. Silvester. D. L. Groner, in a warm speech, nominated S. L. Burroughs and W. H. Thorogood.

H. A. Chapman was nominated by Col. Deyer. S. L. Burroughs and Mr. Thorogood were nominated by Matt Lewis.

John Lester was in favor of two colored men as alternates. "Let the custom house part get the money but give the colored men the honor," and Mr. Sandy Parker declined. In a lively speech of the convention, urging the utter ignoring of the color line in Republican politics, and electing S. L. Burroughs and W. H. Thorogood, another colored brother endorsed them in a speech.

S. L. Burroughs and W. H. Thorogood were then nominated by acclamation.

ELECTOR.

Sandy Parker placed in nomination for elector, W. H. C. Brown. Brown stated he was not eligible.

John Ivey, of Nansemond, placed in nomination Capt. C. H. Causey, Jr., who declined and nominated Col. John J. Deyer, of Southampton. Col. Deyer tried to decline but the convention would not hear him and the tumult of applause fairly drowned him out.

Capt. H. B. Nichols in another flattering speech seconded the nomination. Col. Deyer tried to withdraw in favor of Captain Causey but they wouldn't have it and Col. Deyer was nominated by acclamation.

On motion of Major Banks, W. H. C. Brown was recommended for delegate at large by acclamation. The convention then adjourned.

STATE CONVENTION TODAY.

A number of the delegates to the district convention are also delegates to the State convention which will be held today in the Academy of Music, so they are already on the ground and headquarters of the various committees have been secured some days in advance at the Atlantic and Monticello hotel, while the Academy of Music under the direction of City Chairman Thos. Lowery, has been profusely decorated with flags and bunting and makes a gay appearance. In addition to-day portraits of Washington, Lincoln and McKinley will occupy prominent positions. There will be some 600 delegates present and a large share of them were in the city by midnight.

BOWDENTITES CONFIDENT.

The convention will be called to order by the State Chairman Parke Agnew and the only question before the committee on credentials will be the seating of Bowden of Wise delegates from the Peninsula and Norfolk counties and cities.

It is claimed by the supporters of Mr. Bowden that his delegates were all elected at meetings held under the direct orders of or ratified by the State Committee, and therefore, that there is little doubt as to the result.

The State convention will elect a State Chairman, State Executive Committee, four delegates at large to the National Convention and alternates, a National Committeeman and two Presidential electors at large.
